CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 5th June 2006

PC :

1. Learned advocate appearing for plaintiffs makes a statement that the plaintiffs have, during pendency of these proceedings, transferred their right, title and interest in the subject immovable property in favour of respondents 2 to 30. He informs me that respondents 2 to 30 have, pursuant thereto, taken out Chamber Summons for substituting them in place of original plaintiffs/decree holders. In these circumstances, according to me, the original decree holders have no interest in prosecuting the present Chamber Summons and it is for the respondents now to take out appropriate proceedings. Respondents have taken them out and my attention is invited by him to Chamber Summons No.1368 of 1999.

2. I see no reason to keep this Chamber Summons pending, more so, when nearly eighteen years have elapsed from the date on which the same has been taken out. In these circumstances, it is dismissed for want of prosecution.

3. Office to post Chamber Summons No.1368 of 1999 on board in the week commencing 12th June 2006, if the same is already not disposed of.
